D.R. Horton's Steps to Your Satisfaction

At D.R. Horton, Schuler Division, we are committed to building your home with the exceptional quality that has made us one of Hawai'i's premier homebuilders...and with the assurance you deserve. The D.R. Horton Step Process was created to build a partnership with you and our team so that you can rest assured that your home is being built with your satisfaction in mind.

Step 1

New Home Sales Manual

D.R. Horton's new home sales representative reviews "Your New Home Manual" with you at point of sale to ensure you are given the information you need about the purchase process, the construction of your new home and warranty.

Step 2

Independent Inspections

In addition to county inspectors, D.R. Horton hires an independent company to inspect some of the critical structural aspects of your home. From the foundation to the structural framing connections, the independent inspectors review these components to insure high quality in every D.R. Horton Home.

Step 3

Hard Hat Tour

At the mid-point process of the construction on your home you will be invited to walk your new home. At this tour you will have an opportunity to see some of the quality construction techniques, materials and systems used in your new home.

Step 4

Quality Assurance Inspection

Prior to your orientation tour, a graded inspection of your home conducted by your Warranty Service Representative will be done. Ensuring that the quality of workmanship and conditions of materials used in your new home meets the building plans and specifications is their goal.

Step 5

Post Closing

D.R. Horton's Warranty Service Department will contact you approximately 30 days after move in to see if you would like a Warranty Service Representative to visit your home, review maintenance techniques and address any questions or concerns that you may have about your new home.

Step 6

Your New Home Warranty

D.R. Horton is one of the few homebuilders in Hawai'i that offer it's customers a limited 10 Year Warranty. The details of our warranty are outlined in your New Home Manual.

D.R. Horton is also one of the few homebuilders that offer a 24-hour emergency call center for those now frequent emergency calls after hours.

This warranty program has been put in place to give you some peace of mind that D.R. Horton, Schuler Division will be there long after you have purchased your home.
